

Industry Whitepapers for Referrers

The following resources have been developed as a result of feedback from health professionals to assist with patient needs regarding aged care.

- Ageing into the future: What does it mean to grow old successfully, and how can we help people reach that goal? (2022), by Professor Susan Kurrle, Geriatrician at Hornsby Ku-ring-gai Hospital and Batemans Bay Hospital in southern NSW.
- Dying Well: Why quality palliative and end-of-life care are essential in aged care (2022), by Dr Margaret O'Connor, Emeritus Professor, Monash University.
- Compassionate Leadership in Aged Care (2021), by Dr Jacqueline O'Toole, Lecturer, Monash University.
- Improving Wellbeing for Seniors through Social Connection (2021), by Dr Julie Bajic Smith, Registered Psychologist, Wise Care.
- A Participatory Approach to Working with Older People (2021), by Associate Professor Maree Bernoth, Charles Sturt University, Wagga Wagga.
- The Impact of Dementia and Practical Ways You Can Help (2021), by Maree McCabe, CEO Dementia Australia.
- In Praise of Dignity and Appropriate Dementia Care (2020), by Professor Susan Kurrle, University of Sydney.
- Better Brain Health: How GPs and care providers can help senior Australians (2019), by Associate Professor David Bourke, St Vincent's Hospital, Sydney
- Improving wellbeing for seniors through social connection (2021), by Dr Julie Bajic Smith
- Maintaining hope with older people (2020), by Dr Roderick McKay

Insight Exchange Seminar Series - Speaker notes for health professionals

The following resources have been developed as a result of feedback from health professionals to assist with patient needs regarding aged care.

- Compassionate Leadership in Aged Care \(2021\), by Dr Jacqueline O'Toole, Lecturer, Monash University.
- Improving Wellbeing for Seniors through Social Connections \(2021\), by Dr Julie Bajic Smith, Registered Psychologist, Wise Care.
- A Participatory Approach to Working with Older People \(2021\), by Associate Professor Maree Bernoth, Charles Sturt University, Wagga Wagga.